

Chinese Faculty Posting

St. Margaret's Episcopal School is an independent, college-preparatory day school in Orange County, serving 1,245 students in preschool through grade 12. St. Margaret's is situated on a picturesque 22-acre campus in San Juan Capistrano, California, with dedicated campuses for each school division, modern classrooms and facilities, including a performing arts center, science and technology labs, library, athletics fields and gymnasiums. Head of School William N. Moseley leads a team of experienced and passionate administrators and educators, including principals in each school division. A 21st-century, rigorous and balanced curriculum prepares every student for future success and healthy, productive lives.

St. Margaret's is currently seeking applicants for a full-time Middle and Upper School Chinese Teacher. Candidates should be motivated to work collaboratively with the World Language Faculty to further the language of our students. Potential candidates should have experience teaching Chinese at the secondary school level. A teaching credential is preferred but not required.

Please send a cover letter and resume as a PDF or Word document to Caryl Hostetter, Director of Human Resources at Caryl.Hostetter@smes.org
